The purpose of this Sweepstakes Privacy Policy is to disclose to you the types of information we may collect as a result of your participation in any TD Ameritrade-sponsored Sweepstakes, how we’ll collect, use and disclose it, and our efforts to protect that information. Any information collected by us online is gathered in accordance with and subject to the TD Ameritrade Cookie Policy.

We may request that you provide certain personal information, such as your name, date of birth, username, password, email address and mailing address, and certain other information about you as needed to participate. We will also collect information about your activity and participation in the Sweepstakes. If the Sweepstakes requires you to create a profile, we will collect any information or images you choose to include in such a profile.

We may automatically obtain information about when and how you access and use the Sweepstakes website (“Usage Information”), such as information about your device hardware and software, search terms or links that led you to the website, all the areas of the website that you use, and your IP address or other device identifier (“Device Identifier”). We may use a variety of technologies to collect Usage Information, including cookies, embedded scripts, and web beacons (which may also be included in emails we send to you).

We may also collect information in connection with your use of third party social media platforms, and may include features that allow you to share your performance during or participation in the Sweepstakes. In addition, third parties or service providers may provide us with non-personally identifiable information about the demographics or interests of the types of visitors we receive on our Sweepstakes site.

Sweepstakes Conducted In-Person or By Mail

You may be asked to provide your name, email address, physical address or other contact information, your interests or preferences and other demographic information and other personal information necessary to enter into, participate in and determine eligibility for that Sweepstakes.

How we Use Information

We use the information you provide, however collected, to administer the Sweepstakes, to communicate with you about the Sweepstakes, including winner selection and prize fulfillment, provide you with information, products or services, notify you of other Sweepstakes we think you may be interested in or promote the Sweepstakes, help us verify your identity and that you are eligible to participate in the Sweepstakes, and otherwise prevent fraud and to comply with applicable laws, regulations, and rules as required by law. Usage Information may be collected or used by certain service providers who we may use to help run and maintain the Sweepstakes site and analyze Usage Information. We may keep your Sweepstakes-related information after completion of the Sweepstakes for business management and record keeping purposes and as part of our legal obligations.

How & Why We Share Information

By participating in any Sweepstakes, you give TD Ameritrade consent to use and provide your name, contact information, and other information and content provided by you in connection with the Sweepstakes, to service providers and vendors for the purpose of administering the Sweepstakes and complying with applicable laws, regulations and rules. We may also use Device Identifiers to identify users, and may do so in cooperation with copyright owners, Internet service providers, wireless service providers or law enforcement agencies in our discretion. These disclosures may be carried out without notice to you.

We may disclose and transfer your personal information, in the following situations: (i) to a subsequent owner, co-owner or operator of the site or applicable database; (ii) if TD Ameritrade or any of its affiliated companies assigns its rights regarding any of your information to a third party; (iii) in connection with a corporate merger, consolidation, restructuring, the sale of certain of TD Ameritrade's ownership interests, assets, or both, or other corporate change, including, without limitation, during the course of any due diligence process; or (iv) with our affiliated companies, primarily for business and operational purposes.

If the Sweepstakes requires creating a profile or account that you use to participate in the Sweepstakes, that profile may be visible to other participants under the official rules. You should not add anything to your profile that you do not want to be publicly available. If you use any available social media widgets to post about the Sweepstakes or your participation in it, that information will be visible to anyone permitted to view your social media accounts and used in accordance with those platforms' privacy policies.
